

Oakland Feather River Camp Committee Member Role Description

Our nonprofit mission is to promote and celebrate connections between nature, family and community, by creating unique opportunities to advance environmental appreciation, cultural diversity, and youth empowerment.

Current Active Committees
Gala Planning Committee	Board Development & Governance
Finance	Facilities

Terms and Time Commitment:

- A committee member term is one year long. At this point, there are no limits in how many terms a committee member may serve
- Most committees meet or participate in meetings virtually approximately 10 months out of the year
- Committee members should anticipate a minimum of 3-4 hours per month (meeting preparations, meeting, follow up and action items from meeting)

General Duties:

- Attend regular committee meetings and periodic outreach and promotional events
- Review committee meeting materials prior to the meeting, and resolve questions and concerns prior to meeting, in time to modify agendas
- Serve as active advocates and ambassadors for the organization, leveraging personal and professional relationships to identify potential resources or partnerships

Financial Commitments:

- Committee members will be invited to make an annual contribution at a level that is personally meaningful to them, but there is no requirement of making a donation

Qualifications / Skills Requirements:

- Understanding of our community and its needs
- General inter-personal, problem-solving and communications skills
- Appropriate skills, experience, or expertise in the specified committee

Benefits:

- Being a member of the Camps in Common Board provides an opportunity to give back to the Oakland community, through the advancement of environmental appreciation, cultural diversity and youth empowerment by programs that strengthen connections between nature, family, and community
- In addition, volunteers can expand their own skills, such as: the development of collaborative, teamwork skills. It also provides experience with budgets, strategic plans, revenue generation, management performance evaluations and public relations issues.

Questions? Please don't hesitate to reach out to Mark Olson, Executive Director, at Mark@FeatherRiverCamp.com.